

Summafieldayze set to dazzle

GET DAYZED: De La Soul is one of the cool dance music acts playing at Summafieldayze at Southport on Saturday.

QUEENSLAND'S biggest dance music festival Summafieldayze is being staged on Saturday, January 5 at Doug Jennings Park, The Spit, Main Beach, Southport.

The phenomenal international lineup includes David Guetta featuring Chris Willis, New Young Pony Club, Steve Angello and Sebastian Ingrosso, Felix Da Housecat, Christopher Lawrence, Sister Bliss, Dave Spoon, Span Rock, De La Soul, Stanton Warriors, Benny Benassi, Malente, Kissy Sell Out, Cosmic Gate, Joachim Garraud, Claude Von Stroke Uffie and Feadz and Chuck Love.

Home-grown artists include Derek (K), Chardy, Nick Galea, Rob Kay, Riot In Belgium, Stafford Brothers, Aniki, Tydi, Baby G, Audun, Dope N Dust ed, Vinyl Slingers, Cosmo Vs. Nearhos, Magoo, Chris Wilson, Gerry Morales, Raye Antonelli, MR Sparkles, Murray Brown, Habebe, Sean Rault, Ben Morris, Papa Smurf, Ben Abrahams, Ash Tobia, Brett Allen & DJ Rowan, Joey Mojo, Neroli and DJ Tommy.

This year, a Park and Ride system has been implemented to avoid traffic congestion around the Seaworld Drive area.

The main Park and Ride location will be at Parklands, Gold Coast, where festival goers will be able to park their car and catch a shuttle bus to the event site. This is included in your ticket purchase price. However you will need your physical ticket or a printout from Ticketmaster or In The Mix that says you have a ticket to pick up at the event site.

Shuttle buses also run from the Queensland Avenue Park and Helensvale Rail Station.

Tickets are available from Ticketmaster www.ticketmaster.com.au or 13 61 00 and In The Mix www.inthemix.com.au as well as selected store outlets. Tickets are $108.
